Don't forget to WATCH THE VIDEO! Welcome to Simmering Court in the heart of Lower Mount Royal, just steps from 17th Avenue's shops, cafes, and nightlife. Now priced at $257,000, this updated 1-bedroom condo offers exceptional value and flexibility—whether you're a first-time buyer seeking downtown lifestyle or an investor looking for strong ROI and low carrying costs. This unit features: - Low condo fees of just $285.61/month, which include heat, water, and all the rest, you just pay for electricity additionally. - Heated underground parking (stall #32) —a rare feature at this price point, enhancing convenience and long-term value - In-suite laundry, a large south-facing balcony, and updated stainless steel appliances - Fresh paint, efficient layout, and room to personalize - Slate tile at the entrance (seller open to price negotiation or credit to address minor wear) INVESTOR INSIGHT: With current long-term rental rates in the area averaging $1,700/month, this unit offers positive cash flow potential, especially with a 20% down payment and today's competitive conventional interest rates (~4.5%–4.7%). Projected cap rate: ~5.7%, making this one of the few downtown condos under $260K that delivers both value and income. The building offers secure fob access, bike storage, elevator, and is well-maintained with many units sharing costs—contributing to the low condo fees. Pet policy: Furry friends welcome—with restrictions. One dog or two other types of pets per unit. No dogs with a mature height over 40 cm at the shoulder are permitted (subject to board approval). Available for quick possession and move-in ready. Whether you're looking to live in the heart of Calgary or capitalize on a high-performing rental, this condo is priced to move—with seller motivation and flexibility in play.
