There's limitless potential here for a buy and hold investment, fix and flip, live up and rent down, live on one side and rent out the other, create legal suites in the basements (subject to City approval), a future development project, and multi-generational living. The main floors of both units are close to identical, each having over 1,000 sq ft, soaring vaulted ceilings, original hardwood flooring, 3 spacious bedrooms, one 4-piece bathroom, and a large living area with massive picture window that overlooks the generously sized balcony. The basements both have one 3-piece bathroom, a dedicated laundry/utility/storage area, huge windows throughout, but slightly differ in how the rest of the level is finished. Unit 2833's lower-level features 2 more bedrooms, and a rec room, while 2835's awaits your masterful design with a flex area and storage space. Additional features include a double detached garage, and two newer furnaces (2020).
