This sunny, south-facing townhouse has a great setup and feels more like a single-family home than part of a big complex. Out front, you’ve got a private, fenced patio with poured concrete and just enough tree coverage for shade and privacy. It’s the perfect spot to soak up some sun or fire up the barbecue. Inside, there’s a tiled mudroom right off the double attached garage, which easily fits two vehicles and has epoxy floors. The main level is open and bright with hardwood floors, a big kitchen island, gas stove, and plenty of windows that bring in tons of natural light. There’s also a handy two-piece bathroom on this level. Upstairs, both bedrooms have their own walk-in closets and ensuite bathrooms, which is a great setup for roommates or guests. There’s also a small den at the top of the stairs that makes a nice home office or reading spot. The south-facing deck looks onto single-family homes and even has a bit of a mountain view. You’ve got a gas line for your barbecue and central air conditioning to keep things cool in the summer. The complex is well-run, with recent roof replacements and good management. You’ll love living in Tuscany—close to the mountains, great schools, shopping, and easy access to the ring road.
