Welcome to this stunning two-story 2400 sq ft home located in a quiet, family-friendly neighborhood close to schools, parks, shopping, and scenic walking paths. Designed with both comfort and functionality in mind, this property offers modern style and thoughtful layout throughout. Step into the spacious front foyer, where soaring ceilings extend to the second floor, creating a grand and airy first impression. The open-concept main floor is perfect for entertaining — featuring a bright kitchen with ample cabinetry, a walk-through pantry connecting to both the garage and front entrance, a cozy living room with a fireplace, and an inviting dining area with plenty of natural light. A convenient 2-piece bathroom completes the main level. Upstairs, you’ll find three generous bedrooms, including a beautiful primary suite with a walk-through closet leading to a luxurious 5-piece ensuite featuring dual sinks, a separate shower, and a relaxing soaker tub. The upper level also includes a laundry room for added convenience and a 4-piece main bathroom for family or guests. The unfinished basement awaits your personal touch, offering 9.5–10-foot ceilings and plenty of space to develop into the perfect recreation or living area. Enjoy the comfort of a heated double attached garage, ideal for Alberta winters. This home combines style, space, and practicality — an ideal choice for families looking to settle in one of Red Deer’s desirable communities.
