THERE'S A REASON PEOPLE FALL HARD FOR SPRINGBANK HILL—it's the rare corner of the city where you can hit the walking paths, grab groceries, and still feel like you live tucked into nature. And with this two bedroom unit at Robson Summit of Montreux, you get it all—plus an actual BACKYARD FEEL thanks to a GROUND-LEVEL PATIO that opens straight to the courtyard. It's where coffee tastes better, the barbecue actually gets used, and your four-legged roommate thinks you moved here just for them. Inside, the layout makes sense (and let's be honest, not all condos do). The kitchen feels grown-up—BUILT-IN WALL OVEN, ELECTRIC COOKTOP, and a BREAKFAST BAR that's perfect for pancakes, wine nights, or both. Just off to the side, a small OFFICE NOOK quietly gets things done without stealing square footage from the fun parts of the home. The living room hits that cozy-without-cramped balance, with CEILING FANS keeping the air moving and patio doors bringing in courtyard light. Both bedrooms are smartly separated for privacy: the master gets its own WALK-IN CLOSET and ENSUITE, while the SECOND BEDROOM loops into a CHEATER ENSUITE that wraps through the IN-UNIT LAUNDRY and back to the main space—an unexpectedly slick flow that makes everyday life less clunky. TWO TITLED UNDERGROUND PARKING STALLS, and a TITLED STORAGE LOCKER handle the grown-up details, while the building's fitness room, bike storage, and secure entry keep things easy. Step outside and the location does the rest. GREENSPACES, PONDS, AND TRAILS wind just south of the complex, Stoney
