Iconic Grovedale commercial property situated on a highly desirable 2.82 acre parcel with excellent highway exposure. This versatile property offers numerous possibilities—continue operating as a food and liquor store or repurpose the site for a new business venture. Strategically located along Highway 666, the property benefits from outstanding access and visibility, capturing steady local traffic as well as significant volume from oil, gas, and logging industry workers travelling the corridor. All existing store fixtures are included in the sale, providing a turnkey opportunity for the right buyer. The building features an updated basement with a new furnace, along with select plumbing and electrical upgrades. An excellent opportunity for owner-operators or investors seeking a well-located commercial property. Contact a Commercial Realtor for further details or to arrange a viewing.
